Dealertrack Appoints Richard Evans to Head its Canadian Operations

Mississauga, Canada, April 14, 2016 – Dealertrack®, a Cox Automotive™ brand, today announced that Richard Evans has been named vice president and general manager, Dealertrack Canada. Evans officially takes the helm of Dealertrack Canada on April 25th.

Evans joins Dealertrack from Davis & Henderson (D&H), where he was most recently vice president for Collateral Management Solutions responsible for that group's overall strategic direction and financial performance. Earlier, at D&H, he held several positions of leadership having originally joined the company following the purchase of ASSET Inc. in 2011. Evans holds a B.S. in Pure Mathematics & Statistical Sciences from the University of Western Ontario.

Evans will initially work with Michael Collins, senior vice president at Dealertrack, as Collins transitions toward retirement. Following Collins' retirement, Evans will work with Mark Furcolo, senior vice president, Lender Solutions at Dealertrack, and Maria Soklis, president of Cox Automotive Canada, to continue the integration between Dealertrack and Cox Automotive, and deliver market leading solutions to Canadian clients, including dealers, lenders and strategic partners.

"We are fortunate to have such a talented and experienced leader as Richard joining Dealertrack's Canadian team," said Collins. "Richard's extensive management experience, coupled with his strong commitment to uncover opportunities through client and industry engagement, and his deep and versatile background within the Canadian financial services software market, make him the perfect person to lead our team."
